Dear Prospective Candidates:

Congratulations on your decision to pursue a degree in Educational Administration & Leadership and earn a Preliminary Administrative Services Credential* Here is why SFSU's Spring 2023 Educational Administration Program is the best option to accommodate your academic goals and demanding work schedules:

1. The program is designed with YOU in mind! All classes are hybrid/blended, with face-to-face meetings scheduled every other Saturday while PK-12 schools are in session.
2. As 2019, ALL educational administration candidates interested in Tier I credential are required to take and pass the California Administrator Performance Assessment/CalAPA (similar to EdTPA for teachers). Educational Administration & Leadership Program embeds CalAPA competencies in its coursework to support candidates as they prepare for CalAPA.
3. This is a one year (12 months)/2.5-semester program. The program commences at the start of the Spring'23 semester (January) and concludes at the end of the Fall'23 semester (December).
4. The program offers considerable savings in tuition/fees (approximately $11,500 for the entire program based on the 2022-23 tuition schedule)!
5. In addition to completing coursework for Tier I Preliminary Administrative Services Credential, you will also earn MA in Educational Administration & Leadership!

Coursework:

- Spring: EDAD 713: Administrative Processes; ISED 797: Seminar in Educational Research; EDAD 714: Practicum: Site Administration; EDAD 763: Law and Education
- Summer: EDAD 743: Educational Planning, Technology & Evaluation & EDAD 774: Change Processes and Education
- Fall: EDAD 723: School Administration; EDAD 753: Human Resource Administration; EDAD 784: Special Education Administration; EDAD 733: Curricular Leadership for Multicultural Education; & EDAD 892: Internship/Educational Administration II

If you have questions and/or are ready to apply, please contact Dr. Okhremtchouk at irinao@sfsu.edu
